Scripture: Hebrews 2:10-18

THIS WEEK'S FOCUS

Jesus' incarnation was necessary for him to serve as the Pioneer of our salvation, to become our Beloved Brother, to defeat death and Satan, and to satisfy the just wrath of God as our Propitiatory High Priest.

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION (Use along with Reading: Ante Faciem Dei)

- Who was the Initiator of redemption, and the one "for whom and by whom all things exist"?
- What does it mean that Jesus is the founder (Perfect Pioneer) of our salvation?
- How was Jesus perfected through suffering?
- When we are gripped by the fear, where can we turn for help?
- Do you view your persecutions and sufferings as preparation for glory?
- Why was it necessary for Jesus to serve as our Propitiatory High Priest? Explain how Jesus mercifully and faithfully executed his mediatory work.
