Scripture: Hebrews 3:1-6

THIS WEEK'S FOCUS

Let us fix our eyes on Jesus Christ who has adopted us into God's household and gives us strength for every battle and hope in every trial.

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION (Use along with Reading: Ante Faciem Dei)

- Are you regularly and diligently fixing your thoughts on the person and work of Jesus Christ, being single-minded in your devotion to him?
- Why can the author of Hebrews call his audience (including us) holy brothers and sisters (verse 1)?
- What is the heavenly calling shared by the family of God?
- Are you intentionally cultivating relationships with your spiritual brothers and sisters?
- How does the author compare and contrast Moses and Jesus Christ?
- What is the evidence that we belong to Christ and are genuine members of the household of God (verse 6)? Are you confidently resting in Christ as the author of your salvation, relying on him for your present sanctification, and joyfully boasting in him as your hope for future glory?
