Scripture: Hebrews 6:13-20

THIS WEEK'S FOCUS

Jesus is the fulfillment of God's redemptive promises, the sure and steadfast anchor of our souls because he has granted us access into the eternal, loving presence of God the Father.

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION (Use along with Reading: Ante Faciem Dei)

- Why is Abraham a fitting example for us to follow? What did God promise to Abraham and how did God faithfully fulfill his promises? Like Abraham why do we also need constant reminders of God's promises and his trustworthiness (1 Peter 1:3-9)?
- Explain how God's promises are both a present reality and a future hope ("already and not yet")?
- What is the correlation between the "two unchangeable things" (promises and oaths)? If God always delivers on His promises, why did He swear an oath (covenant)?
- When you experience turbulence in life, what temporary refuge are you tempted to run to?
- What did Jesus accomplish by entering the "inner place behind the curtain" as our forerunner? Is he the sure and steadfast anchor for your soul?
