Topic: Biblical Sexuality and Gender

Scripture: Genesis 1:26-28, 2:18-25; Matthew 19:4-6; John 1:14; Colossians 4:2-6

THIS WEEK'S FOCUS

When dealing with human sexuality and gender, we must stand firm on the truth of God's word as our authority, expose and confront lies and deceit with grace and truth, and lovingly demonstrate and declare the gospel to those in bondage to sin.

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION (Use along with Reading: Ante Faciem Dei)

- Why is this sexuality and gender a vitally important topic?
- What is a worldview, and how do we formulate a Christian worldview?
- What does Scripture teach about human identity?
- How can we properly understand manhood, womanhood, gender, and sexuality? How can we be confident about gender and sexuality in a world that is muddying the waters?
- Where did trans ideology come from, what are its claims, and how is it being propagated?
- How do you love and show compassion to those within the LGBTQAI+ "community" without embracing or accepting their trans identity?
- How can parents prepare/protect their children from the dangers of trans ideology?
- How do we show grace to one another as we work through these issues?
- What is the goal of our mission: to change sexual orientation, change the culture at large, or demonstrate and declare the gospel?
