Scripture: Isaiah 37:8-38

THIS WEEK'S FOCUS

This week's passage continues the narrative break of Isaiah's prophecy detailing Sennacherib's message, Hezekiah's request, and God's response.

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION (Use along with Reading: Ante Faciem Dei)

- Describe the events detailed in Isaiah 36-37.
- What is the Rabshakeh's message to Judah in verses 8-13?
- What had God previously told his prophet, priest, and king (verse 6)? Do you trust God and his promises? Where do you turn when you struggle with questions and doubts?
- Explain the differences between a Christian worldview and a secular worldview. How does worldview impact your daily life and decisions?
- How does Hezekiah respond to the latest message from Assyria (verses 14-20)? Have you ever received devastating news that drew you to your knees before God?
- What five ways does Hezekiah address God? How do these truths about God increase our faith and enhance our prayers? What can we learn from Hezekiah's prayer (verse 20)?
- What can we learn from God's response to Hezekiah's prayer?
- Do you trust that God's plans and purposes are for our good and his glory?
