Scripture: Isaiah 55

THIS WEEK'S FOCUS

God invites everyone to forsake their sin and find forgiveness and true, lasting satisfaction for their souls in Jesus Christ.

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION (Use along with Reading: Ante Faciem Dei)

- What is God offering freely in the opening verses? What does it mean to be spiritually thirsty and broke(n)? What are some things we chase after for personal satisfaction?
- What promise did God make to David, and how would God fulfill this great promise (2 Samuel 7; Luke 1:71-75)?
- What does verse 5 teach us about God and his kingdom?
- What is the urgent invitation in verses 6-7 (Acts 17:30)? What does it reveal about us and God's character?
- Explain how God's thoughts and ways are higher than ours (verses 8-9)? How can we accurately identify God's ways, and where do we find the power to follow them?
- Are you sharing God's word believing that He accomplishes all his purposes? Does God ever fail in his mission?
- What will be the inevitable response to God's redeeming work and peaceful reign (verses 12-13)?
